Curriculum and Staff Development Division Support

Project Title	Curriculum and Staff Development Division Support
Project Summary	This project is housed in the Curriculum and Staff Development Division (CSD), School of Professional Area Studies at the Foreign Service Institute. (v)Interns supporting this project will advance the training development that this Division provides in support of preparing Foreign Service Officers
Country	United States

Project Description

CSD is responsible for all train the trainer courses offered by the Department of State. As such, we are constantly upgrading, designing, and developing the material and content used to develop trainers in the Department of State. (v)Interns will be an integral part in this process by contributing experience, knowledge, expertise and passion. We need (v)Intern support as our current staffing does not support the innovation and demand that currently exists for our training.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Data visualization
Editing and proofreading
Marketing
Research
Social media management

Additional Information

This is a great opportunity for those with an education background and/or visual design background to continue to develop their individual skills while contributing to an extremely worthy cause.

Language Requirements

None